Want to Learn More About Fighting Negative CPARS Ratings, Privacy in Government Contracting, the Mandatory Disclosure Rule or Just Network with Government Contractors? Kilpatrick's Got a Webinar or M

The fall brings many nice things: cooler weather, beautiful leaves, and of course, the Government's fiscal year end. To those wondering where in the world Kilpatrick's government contracts attorneys have been (because they sure haven't been putting up blog posts), we've had our heads down plugging away at bid protests, contract funding issues, and debarment proceedings. Not to worry though, we've got many upcoming webinars and events to make sure you stay up to date with what's going in the world of government contracts:

- On Friday, November 10, 2017, at Federal Publications' Cybersecurity Institute in Tysons Corner, VA, Gunjan Talati & Chris Henel will present on what government contractors need to know about data breaches. You can read the full overview and register at http://www.fedpubseminars.com/Cybersecurity-Institute-DC/Breach-Before-During-and-After-Best-Practices-and-Prevention-Strategies/#Overview

(Please note that Federal Publications Seminars charges for this event.)

- On Tuesday, November 14, 2017, from 12-1 p.m. EST Gunjan Talati & Chris Henel are presenting a Federal Publications webinar on fighting back against negative CPARS reviews.
