

Insights: Events

Supply Chain Challenges in a Dynamic Economic and Regulatory Environment: Disputes, Compliance Pitfalls, and Contractual Relief Mechanisms

Inter-Pacific Bar Association Annual Meeting and Conference

Thursday, March 9, 2023 -

Dubai, UAE

Thomas Allen, Partner and Global Lead for International Disputes, will moderate the panel presentation "Supply Chain Challenges in a Dynamic Economic and Regulatory Environment: Disputes, Compliance Pitfalls, and Contractual Relief Mechanisms" at the Inter-Pacific Bar Association (IPBA) Annual Meeting and Conference in Dubai.

Whether the result of covid policies, protectionist tariffs, increased fuel prices, labor shortages, currency fluctuations, equipment/material scarcity, or heightened regulatory hurdles, the global supply chain has encountered unprecedented stresses that have led to a variety of disputes, performance problems, and logistical challenges. This panel will explore the present and near-term outlook for supply chain disputes with a particular emphasis on new compliance obligations, meeting the demand the energy transition demand, and managing volatile economic factors such as fuel prices, material costs, and currency fluctuation.

Moderators:

Thomas Allen, Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP, Washington DC

Dorothee Ruckteschler, Dorothee Ruckteschler Dispute Resolution, Stuttgart

Speakers:

Gordon Blanke, Blanke Arbitration, Dubai

David McArthur, Anderson Mori & Tomotsune, Tokyo

Nesreen Osman, Pinsent Masons, Dubai

For more information about IPBA Dubai 2023, click here.

Event Details

Thursday, March 9, 2023

Dubai, UAE

"Supply Chain Challenges in a Dynamic Economic and Regulatory Environment: Disputes, Compliance Pitfalls, and Contractual Relief Mechanisms"

March 9, 2023

Related People

Thomas G. Allen

Partner

Washington, DC

t 202.508.5867

tgallen@ktslaw.com