Adria Perez Appointed to Hispanic National Bar Association's Latina Commission

November 12, 2015

ATLANTA (November 12) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today that partner Adria Perez was appointed to serve on the Hispanic National Bar Association's (HNBA) 2015-2016 Latina Commission. Ms. Perez was only one of 21 appointments to the national commission.

The HNBA is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, national membership organization that represents the interests of Hispanic legal professionals in the United States and its territories. In 2008, HNBA created the Latina Commission to study the status of Latina lawyers in the legal profession. Its goal is to provide education, mentorship, and sponsorship to Latina lawyers. Ms. Perez focuses her practice on representing both corporations and individuals in white collar criminal defense matters, government enforcement issues, as well as internal, criminal and SEC investigations. Her experience includes handling issues relating to the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, False Claims Act (including government contracting, healthcare and tax matters), Civil Investigative Demands and export enforcement. Ms. Perez assists clients in responding to inquiries from and government investigations conducted by the DOJ, SEC, OCC and Office of Inspector General from a variety of federal agencies. She also counsels clients on developing and strengthening compliance programs and policies.
