Charlie Henn Receives IP Community Service Award

OCTOBER 20, 2023

Atlanta Partner Charlie Henn was honored with the IP Community Service Award during the 2023 Georgia Intellectual Property Alliance Awards Luncheon.

Every three years, the IP community honors individuals who have a role in the field of intellectual property and who has made a lasting impact on society through significant contributions to community service.

Kilpatrick Townsend attorneys and professional staff attended the ceremony in support of Charlie, including Co-Chair of the Trademark & Copyright Team, Bill Brewster, who presented him with the award. Bill is also a previous winner of the award.
