Insights: News Releases

Mark Wolfgang Joins Kilpatrick Townsend in Silicon Valley

OCTOBER 11, 2016

MENLO PARK (October 11) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today the addition of Mark Wolfgang to the firm's Silicon Valley office as an associate in the Electrical Engineering and Software Team in the firm's internationally recognized Intellectual Property Department.

Mr. Wolfgang is a registered patent agent and focuses his practice on patent prosecution and counseling. He served as a judicial extern to the Hon. Benita Pearson in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. Prior to launching his legal career, Mr. Wolfgang served as an Engineer with General Dynamics Electric Boat and as an Air Transportation Craftsman in the U.S. Air Force.

Mr. Wolfgang earned his J.D. from The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law where he served as Staff Editor for I/S: A Journal of Law and Policy for the Information Society. He received his Bachelor of Engineering from the University of Delaware.

Follow the firm on Twitter: @KTS_Law.

###