Craig Lilly is Chair of the firm's West Coast Mergers and Acquisition Practice. He is a nationally recognized advisor to strategics and financial sponsors on transformative domestic and cross-border technology acquisitions, mergers, recapitalizations, spinoffs, and minority investments. Craig's practice includes advising emerging technology companies and funds on venture capital financings, debt financings, corporate governance, and public offerings. He also represents fund sponsors in connection with structuring and organizing investment funds, parallel investment vehicles, and offshore funds.

Prior to joining the firm, Craig was partner in the Silicon Valley and San Francisco, California offices of a global law firm where he concentrated on complex cross-border and domestic mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, and joint ventures.

Craig maintains an active pro bono practice. His work includes education and mentoring to help minority and diverse management teams and companies achieve a sustainable growth strategy.

Craig frequently writes and lectures on legal and business issues regarding mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, and corporate finance. He has been quoted in, or contributed to, articles and features in Bloomberg, The Wall Street Journal, The Deal, Reuters, Financier Worldwide, CFO.com, and other major publications.

Craig was listed in Thomson Reuters as one of its "Stand-Out Lawyers" in 2026.
