Insights: News

Former Kilpatrick Chair, Civil Rights Champion Dies At 93

Law360

JULY 18, 2025

A longtime Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton LLP attorney who served as co-chair of the Atlanta-based firm following its 1997 merger has died at the age of 93, the firm announced this week.

Miles J. Alexander, a copyright and trademark partner who spent a combined 65 years with Kilpatrick and legacy firm Kilpatrick & Cody before only recently retiring from the practice of law, died at his Atlanta home on July 11, the firm announced Monday. The cause of death was not disclosed.

Read more.