Supreme Court - Decision to Drop on Thursday

This morning the Supreme Court issued its ruling on the constitutionally of Arizona's new immigration law.

Reports from those who attended the session this morning have said that the court will release all of its remaining decisions on Thursday, including the decision on the Affordable Care Act. This decision could come as early as 10am ET on Thursday.

We will send out a quick email as soon as the decision comes down and then will follow-up with more detailed analysis.
