Insights: News Releases

Kilpatrick Townsend's Kathryn Isted Named to the Board of Directors of the Georgia Asylum and Immigration Network

JULY 5, 2016

ATLANTA (July 5) -- Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today that attorney Kathryn Isted has been named to the Board of Directors of the Georgia Asylum and Immigration Network (GAIN).

GAIN works to provide quality free legal representation to asylum seekers and immigration victims of human trafficking, domestic violence, sexual assault, and other crimes through direct representation and pro bono referrals. It offers opportunities for attorneys and legal staff to assist immigrants in their efforts to gain asylum to the United States. GAIN attorneys represent and assist clients in preparing for hearings to determine their eligibility for asylum and advocate for asylum status.

For more information on GAIN, please click here.

Ms. Isted focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation. In addition, she has experience in pharmaceutical and medical device products liability litigation and medical malpractice defense litigation. In 2016, the Georgia Asylum & Immigration Network (GAIN) honored Ms. Isted with the "Volunteer of the Year Award" for contributing more than 90 hours of representation in asylum, trafficking, and U-Visa matters and the positive impact she has made in the lives of GAIN's vulnerable clients – victims of violent crime, trafficking, and persecution.

For more information about Kilpatrick Townsend, please visit: www.kilpatricktownsend.com.

Follow the firm on Twitter: @KTS_Law.

###