

Insights: Publications

How Patents Will Change Under the "New" Supreme Court

Best Lawyers

August 22, 2018

Written by

With the recent and pending changes to the U.S. Supreme Court's composition, many lawyers are speculating on how a new balance of power in the house will affect future decisions concerning abortion, gay rights, and immigration rights. These are important subjects, though they are not the only ones deserving of our attention. Potential changes to the U.S. patent system should not go unexamined.

To view the full article, please click here.