Complex Commercial Litigation

Litigation

John Robinson focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation and labor and employment law. John represents clients in state and federal courts in a broad variety of litigation, including contract and business partner disputes, class actions, employment claims, consumer and data privacy litigation, real estate and construction, transportation, intellectual property, products liability, premises liability, personal injury, and healthcare.

While attending Texas A&M University School of Law, John served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Craig Stoddart in the Court of Appeals for the Fifth District of Texas in Dallas. He was a research assistant for Professor William Byrnes and a student attorney in the Entrepreneurship Law Clinic. John was also an ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition Regional Champion and winner of the Best Advocate Award, as well as the winner of his law school's intramural moot court and alternative dispute resolution (ADR) competitions.

John was recognized in 2025, 2026 and 2027 as one of the "Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch" for Commercial Litigation by The Best Lawyers in America®. He was recognized as a Texas "Rising Star" in 2024, 2025 and 2026 for Business Litigation by Super Lawyers magazine.
