

Insights: Publications

Recognize. Disenrolled Indians Acknowledged As Their Own Tribes.

LinkedIn

October 13, 2015

It could happen. In fact, the Federal Government is currently considering whether a band of disenrolled California Pomo Indians should be recognized as their own tribe. Other tribes should be worried about the threat that disenrolling tribes may cause the inter-tribal status quo.