Kilpatrick Townsend wins big at Managing IP Americas Awards 2024

Managing IP

April 29, 2024

In the US, Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton had a successful evening. The firm took home four awards, including US trademark prosecution firm of the year and America's firm of the year.

Wab Kadaba, Atlanta-based chair of Kilpatrick's IP department, said: "This is a testament to our firm's long history of partnering with and counselling the world's most innovative and technology-focused companies, as well as some of the world's most recognised brand owners.

"While we know how outstanding our lawyers and professional staff are at Kilpatrick, it is an honour to hear others – from clients to competitors – say it as well. Being able to point to this amazing honour only helps when you are competing for top-tier talent and sophisticated work."
