

Insights: News Releases

Kilpatrick Townsend Adds Sarah Glendon to San Francisco Office

August 4, 2021

SAN FRANCISCO (August 4) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today the addition of Sarah Glendon as an Associate in the San Francisco office. Ms. Glendon joins the Complex Commercial Litigation Team.

Ms. Glendon focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation disputes in a diverse range of industries, including agricultural biotechnology, automotive, pharmaceutical, and consumer products. Her practice spans a range of practice areas, including breach of contract disputes, class actions, complex fraud cases, intellectual property disputes, cybersecurity and data privacy, and governmental regulatory matters.

Ms. Glendon earned her J.D., cum laude, from the University of California's Hastings College of Law and served as Staff Editor of the Hastings Science and Technology Law Journal. While attending law school, Ms. Glendon was a judicial extern to the Hon. Jacqueline Scott Corley in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. She received her B.A. in Political Science and Communications from California Polytechnic State University.

###