Kilpatrick Townsend Attorneys Named 2020 San Diego Super Lawyers

MARCH 27, 2020

SAN DIEGO (March 27) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today that Megan Chung, James Cleary, and Nancy Stagg were named 2020 San Diego Super Lawyers.

Super Lawyers selects attorneys using a patented multi-phase selection process. Peer nominations and evaluations are combined with independent research. Each candidate is evaluated on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. Selections are made on an annual, state-by-state basis. The objective is to create a credible, comprehensive and diverse listing of outstanding attorneys that can be used as a resource for attorneys and consumers searching for legal counsel.

Megan Chung was selected in the Intellectual Property Litigation category. The Managing Partner for the firm's San Diego office, Ms. Chung also heads the office's Patent Litigation Team. She has extensive experience representing companies and executives on intellectual property and technology-related matters, focusing on patent, copyright, trade secret and trademark litigation and post-grant proceedings.

James Cleary was selected in the Intellectual Property Category. Mr. Cleary is a registered patent attorney who focuses on patent law, including preparation and prosecution of patent applications, rendering of opinions on infringement and validity, licensing, due diligence investigations, and strategic counseling, with an emphasis on electrical, telecommunications, software, and mechanical technologies.

Nancy Stagg was selected in the Class Action/Mass Torts category. Ms. Stagg is a partner in the firm's Complex Commercial Litigation Team and heads the firm's west coast class action group. Her practice focuses primarily on the defense of consumer class actions. Ms. Stagg also handles a wide variety of complex commercial, employment, and intellectual property litigation, including trade secret theft litigation. She enjoys counseling corporate legal departments and business owners in the most effective ways to avoid potential litigation.
