To Redact or Not to Redact: How to Treat Sensitive But Not Privileged Information

February 1, 2018

So, you're deep in the weeds of your latest e-discovery project for an important client and things are going smoothly. An email now arrives from the review team flagged as urgent and with the tag line, "Take a look at this document, it's got some pretty sensitive info - that isn't relevant - and I'm pretty sure the client won't be happy sending this out." Just redact it, right? At least one court disagrees.
