Jeff Fisher is a trial lawyer who specializes in complex commercial litigation, including contractual disputes, class actions, and litigation involving restrictive covenants and trade secrets. Jeff has won plaintiff's verdicts as lead counsel in a jury trial and in arbitration and has substantial experience representing clients before federal and state trial courts and in arbitration. Jeff regularly advises and represents telecommunications companies, software vendors and customers, private equity firms, and other technology companies in disputes that involve difficult contractual or statutory issues, software implementation, consumer class actions, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act ("TCPA"), or misuse of confidential information. In 2020, Jeff was recognized by the Daily Report's Georgia Legal Awards as an attorney "On the Rise" and was named as one of Georgia Trend's "40 Under 40."

Jeff has represented regional and Fortune 500 companies in class action litigation, breach of contract disputes, and complex fraud cases. He has substantial experience litigating cases brought under federal and state statutes, including the TCPA, RICO, the Uniform Trade Secrets Act, the False Claims Act, and the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act. Jeff has practiced in numerous federal, state, and appellate courts and has represented parties in private arbitration and mediation. Jeff has experience with all aspects of the litigation process, including pre-litigation investigations, motion practice, complex document discovery, depositions, dispositive motions, settlement negotiations, hearings, and trial.

Jeff is also devoted to pro-bono and community work. In 2015, Jeff received Kilpatrick's Pro Bono Excellence Award for his representation of a transgender Mexican woman seeking asylum in the United States. In 2014, Jeff was part of a team that represented 17 guest workers from India alleging human trafficking claims against a large marine construction firm. Jeff is on the executive board of AJC ACCESS and the steering committee of the Atlanta Black-Jewish Coalition.

Prior to joining the firm, Jeff clerked for the Honorable Judge Harold L. Murphy of the Northern District of Georgia. While in law school, Jeff was elected to the Order of the Coif and served as an Articles Editor (2009-2010) and as a member of the Editorial Board (2008-2009) of the Georgia Law Review.

Jeff was recognized in 2018, 2019 and 2020 as a Georgia "Rising Star" for Business Litigation by Super Lawyers magazine. He was recognized in 2020 by Daily Report's Georgia Legal Awards as being an attorney "On the Rise", which honors Georgia's most promising lawyers under the age of 40. Jeff was also named one of Georgia Trend's "40 Under 40" for 2020. He was recognized in 2027 and the three years immediately preceding for Technology Law and in 2021, 2022 and 2023 as one of the "Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch" for Commercial Litigation, Intellectual Property Law, and Technology Law by The Best Lawyers in America®.
