Ted Davis Elected to the American Bar Association's Board of Governors

AUGUST 9, 2023

Ted Davis has been elected to the Board of Governors by the American Bar Association (ABA). Ted will serve three years.

The 43-member Board of Governors has the authority to act and speak for the ABA, consistent with previous action of the House of Delegates, when the House is not in session. The Board usually meets four times a year. It oversees the general operation of the ABA and develops specific plans of action.
