Finance

Big Business

As market trends continue to evolve and new regulations continue to impact the financial sector, clients require legal counsel with the right sophistication and experience when capital is at risk. With more than 70 attorneys located throughout the U.S. and abroad, Kilpatrick's Finance Team represents domestic and international creditors and debtors — lenders, arrangers, agents, investors, funds, public and private businesses, issuers, underwriters, and sponsors — across a full range of complex financial transactions, both secured and unsecured. Leveraging our unique insight into financial markets and industry idiosyncrasies, we routinely craft strategic and innovative financing solutions to successfully handle multimillion- and multibillion-dollar transactions in single and multiple jurisdictions to achieve our clients' objectives.

Reach

Sector Know-How

Clients regularly rely on Kilpatrick's extensive experience and understanding of the complexities of all aspects of the financial sector — from financing new opportunities to restructuring and workout strategies. Our attorneys provide sophisticated advice, while gauging the best possible solutions for our clients' most complex financial matters. We are supported by strong bankruptcy and restructuring, corporate, energy, intellectual property, Native American, real estate and capital markets, securities, and tax practices, enabling us to quickly assemble the right team to close the deal in a timely and cost-efficient manner.

Services

- Commercial Finance
- Corporate Bonds
- Corporate Finance
- Credit Products, including default swaps, derivatives, letters of credit, and other banking products
- Leveraged REIT Transactions
- Mezzanine Finance, including corporate equity co-investments and real estate
- Project Development & Finance
- Real Estate Finance
- Real Estate Finance & Capital Markets, including commercial mortgage sales and servicing

Approach

Tailored Advice

By understanding our clients' challenges and goals, we can provide sophisticated, effective advice on their most complex matters, while also building long-lasting relationships based on trust. Our big picture analysis and attention to detail allow us to identify and structure financing deals, while avoiding potential risks and meeting our clients' short- and long-term business objectives.

Primary Contacts

Robert B. Shaw

Partner
t 404.745.2596
rshaw@ktslaw.com