

Insights: News

Kilpatrick Townsend Grows its Trademark & Copyright Team in Atlanta

April 9, 2019

Atlanta (April 9) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today the addition of Caitlin Smith to the firm's Atlanta office as an Associate on the Trademark & Copyright Team in the firm's Intellectual Property Department.

With experience in intellectual property litigation and trademark portfolio management, she has worked directly with clients through all stages of litigation and has managed the prosecution and enforcement of U.S. and international trademark portfolios.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Smith was an associate at an Am Law 100 firm in Atlanta, and advised trademark clients on international brand growth and advertising campaigns, and represented clients in trademark and patent litigation and domain name disputes.

Ms. Smith earned her J.D. from Vanderbilt University where she served as Associate Justice of the Moot Court Board. She received a B.A. summa cum laude in History and International Affairs from the University of Georgia.
