Regan Adamson Recognized as Member of Inaugural “Emerging Leaders” Class

MAY 20, 2022

On Thursday, May 19, 2022, numerous Kilpatrick Townsend attorneys and staff -- along with 400 other local leaders -- attended the Greater Winston-Salem, Inc. Annual Meeting – this yearly gathering examines creative ways that the organization can initiate, engage, and empower the community and economic growth. During the evening, members of the inaugural class of "Emerging Leaders" were recognized, including Kilpatrick Townsend's Regan Adamson. This new Greater Winston-Salem, Inc. program will provide mentorship opportunities and other support to a small cohort of individuals looking to grow into community leadership opportunities.

Mr. Adamson is a partner in Kilpatrick Townsend's Winston-Salem office. He focuses his practice on private funds, investment advisers, securities, and mergers and acquisitions as a member of the firm's Investment Management & Broker Dealer Team.
