Kilpatrick Launches Internal AI R&D Lab

Law360 Pulse

June 9, 2026

Law360 Pulse covered Kilpatrick's recent launch of Kilpatrick Labs, an innovation program focused on developing and deploying artificial intelligence tools for the firm's attorneys, professional staff and clients.

"We didn't want to bolt AI onto the practice — we wanted to rebuild around it," Charles Gray, partner at Kilpatrick and leader of Kilpatrick Labs, said in a statement Friday. "Standing up Kilpatrick Labs as its own program, with engineering inside the firm, was the only way to do that without losing control over our clients' data or our attorneys' judgment."

The article also highlighted Iwona Kesting joining the Firm as our Chief Business Development and Marketing Officer.
