Chapter 2: Fraternity and Sorority Liability and Risk Management

Supporting Fraternities and Sororities in the Contemporary Era

DECEMBER 1, 2019 Written by Caroline W. Spangenberg

Sarah J. Spangenburg and Gregory S. Parks are co-authors of this chapter in Supporting Fraternities and Sororities in the Contemporary Era, a Myers Education Press publication, inspired by sustained and reoccurring professional conversations and scholarship that have suggested that not just change is necessary, but that there ought to be a fundamental shift towards reconceptualizing the construct of fraternities and sororities. This text commences with the understanding that issues will continuously exist, requiring a greater nuanced depth of appreciation to reduce their negative impact. It also summarizes national organizations from authentic, represented voices. Chapters then focus on solutions to support the fraternity and sorority experience, providing strategies and emerging explanations for the issues described in this text. Supporting Fraternities and Sororities in the Contemporary Era seeks to do exactly as the title implies: to inform all stakeholders so that they can make better decisions about the future of these institutions.
