Kilpatrick Townsend and Crouch & Ramey Announce Future Plans in Dallas

October 29, 2015

Kilpatrick Townsend Expands With Addition of Prominent Litigation Firm

ATLANTA/DALLAS (October 29) -- Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton today announced its merger with Dallas-based Crouch & Ramey LLP, a highly-regarded, 21-lawyer practice led by preeminent Texas litigation attorneys including named partner Cole Ramey. The merger will be effective as of November 2, 2015. With the merger, Kilpatrick Townsend enters the Texas legal market by making Dallas the home of its 18th office worldwide, including 15 in the United States.

"We are excited to have Crouch & Ramey joining our firm. They are an outstanding group of seasoned trial lawyers with a strong reputation as client focused litigators who consistently get excellent results," said Henry Walker, Kilpatrick Townsend Chair. "They are a great group of people with deep Texas roots who will provide a strong core nucleus on which to build a robust Dallas office. With a significant client base in Texas, we have been looking for the right opportunity to enter the market and believe Crouch & Ramey is an excellent fit."

According to Cole Ramey, Kilpatrick Townsend provided an ideal platform to service their clients' needs. "We are honored to be joining Kilpatrick Townsend. Not only do we immediately add to the depth of Kilpatrick Townsend's world-class litigation department, but the ability to provide national intellectual property and corporate capabilities to our clients is a solid foundation for success. We are joining a firm that fits very well with our culture, puts client service first, encourages collaboration, and serves an impressive and expanding client base."

"Crouch & Ramey has built an impressive practice, with deep connections and an excellent reputation across the state of Texas. It's exciting to join with them as part of the same national team," observed Jim Gilliland, who Chairs Kilpatrick Townsend's Litigation Department. "Crouch & Ramey's solid track record of success particularly adds to our depth in complex commercial litigation and will be an immediate benefit for our combined clients."

The addition of the Crouch & Ramey lawyers will give Kilpatrick Townsend more than 170 lawyers dedicated exclusively to litigation. Kilpatrick Townsend's roster of clients with a significant presence in Texas includes AT&T, Celanese, Halliburton, Oracle, and Turner Industries.

Kilpatrick Townsend's Dallas office will be located at Crouch & Ramey's current address at 2001 Ross Avenue.
