Brittani Miller focuses her practice on real estate and commercial development. She represents clients in all aspects of commercial real estate transactions including acquisitions, dispositions, leasing, and zoning.

Prior to joining the firm, Brittani was an associate in the Milwaukee, Wisconsin office of a national full-service law firm in its real estate practice where she represented real estate owners, developers, and investors in real estate matters.

While attending University of Wisconsin Law School, Brittani worked as a summer associate at her previous law firm. She served as a judicial intern to the Honorable JoAnne F. Kloppenburg in the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. Brittani served as a law clerk at a boutique business law firm based in Madison, Wisconsin and a law clerk at a public utility holding company in its Madison, Wisconsin headquarters. She was also Student Ambassador and Co-President of the Black Law Student Association.

Previously, Brittani serviced in the United States Air Force for more than six years, first as an Air Traffic Control Specialist and later as a paralegal in its Military Justice and Special Victims divisions.
