India Business Law Journal Once Again Names Kilpatrick Townsend Among Top Foreign Law Firms for India Work

August 12, 2022

WASHINGTON, D.C. (August 12) – India Business Law Journal (IBLJ) announced today that Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton was recognized as a “Firm to Watch” in its 2022 report on the “Top Foreign Law Firms for India Work.” The firm was also named to this prestigious list in 2021.

The publication notes that the firm “provides a full-spectrum offering, handling both inbound and outbound matters with an India connection. Kilpatrick Townsend recently counselled a number of US acquirers on their purchases of stakes in Indian entities, and separately advised on sourcing and technology matters, operational and governance issues, HR, foreign exchange and local supply chain arrangements. The firm currently manages 1,079 patents and 2,044 trademarks in India on behalf of its clients.”

The IBLJ report, now in its 16th year, draws on an analysis of more than 600 law firms from every continent that have recorded deals and disputes with an Indian connection in the past 12 months. Results are based on meticulous research, vast editorial experience and extensive consultation with corporate counsel and Indian law firms. The IBLJ selection is based on hundreds of submissions from law firms and public and other records, along with reports in Indian and international media.
