

Multistate Tax

Proactive Planning

We believe that proactive tax planning is the cornerstone of financial success and stability, whether you're a business eyeing a significant transaction, venturing into new markets, or an individual focused on legacy planning. Our commitment is to be your steadfast partner through every phase of tax-related matters, combining strategic foresight with a comprehensive understanding of your financial landscape.

Our approach begins with you. We work to understand the specifics of your situation, offering tailored strategies that leverage tax laws to your advantage while steering clear of pitfalls. Our nexus studies, for example, provide a clear picture of your multi-state tax obligations, ensuring you're well-prepared for any state inquiries.

Our extensive experience and established relationships with state Departments of Revenue translate into nuanced insights into what matters most to taxing authorities. This unique perspective enables us to craft personalized tax planning strategies that not only benefit your immediate operations but also fuel long-term growth.

Navigating audits can be daunting, but with Kilpatrick at your side, it doesn't have to be. Our longstanding connections with tax departments and administrators allow us to anticipate potential issues and resolve them efficiently. We're adept at crafting effective responses to audit inquiries and have a proven track record of negotiating favorable outcomes with revenue authorities.
