Insights: Publications

'Dawn Donut Rule': A Guide for Expanding Franchises to Enforce Trademark Rights

New York Law Journal | ALM

APRIL 21, 2023 Written by William M. Bryner and Christopher P. Bussert

A relatively recent trend indicates that state regulators in franchise registration states are conducting state trademark searches and advising franchise owners, who are filing applications to offer and sell franchises in those registration states, that a local third party already operates in the state under the same or similar trademark as the franchise.

Related People

William M. Bryner
t 336.607.7482
bbryner@ktslaw.com

Christopher P. Bussert
t 404.815.6545
cbussert@ktslaw.com