Insights from In-House and Interior: Top Ten Lessons Learned from My Ten Years of Experience

The Federal Lawyer

April 1, 2016

For the past 10 years, I have had the distinct honor to serve as both attorney general for my tribe, the Poarch Band of Creek Indians, and the deputy solicitor for Indian Affairs in the Office of the Solicitor at the U.S. Department of the Interior (DOI). I sometimes learned these lessons the hard way and wish that I had learned them before I embarked on each of these professional journeys.
