E-Discovery

Anastasios Giatis is an Analyst with Kilpatrick's LitSmart® E-Discovery Team. In that role, Anastasios works directly with e-discovery professionals including project managers, attorneys, and clients in all phases of the EDRM life cycle. His areas of expertise include database creation and maintenance, data manipulation, loading, processing, production, and quality control. He is a certified expert in Relativity, the industry-leading e-discovery platform used in-house by Kilpatrick, having reached the level of Relativity Certified Administrator. He also has extensive experience in a wide range of technologies including Ipro, Summation, Law, Nuix, Concordance, SQL, C++, C#, and Citrix Xencenter. Within the LitSmart® E-Discovery Team, Anastasios assists with developing strategies for creating efficient and stream-lined document reviews and is often relied upon to handle especially complex and highly sensitive data sets.

Anastasios is a graduate of DeVry University where he received a B.S. in Computer Information Systems. Prior to joining the firm, Anastasios worked as a Technology Specialist and then a Technology Manager at Document Technologies, Inc. where he implemented project designs and controls for e-discovery processing.
