Sylvia Lindén New Partner at Kilpatrick Townsend

MARCH 14, 2017

STOCKHOLM (March 14, 2017) – Kilpatrick Townsend announced today the addition of Sylvia Lindén as a partner in the Stockholm office. Sylvia is an expert on public procurement, with a focus on procurement in the utilities sector. She was previously employed at Baker & McKenzie, and joined Kilpatrick Townsend on March 7, 2017.

“I look forward to developing and widening Kilpatrick Townsend’s services within public procurement. Considering the firm’s advanced position in regard to real estate and entrepreneurship, there could be some interesting synergic effects for clients,” says Sylvia Lindén.

“We are of course very happy to have Sylvia as a new partner of the firm. We have worked with matters related to public procurement for many years, primarily within the real estate and entrepreneurial sector. By recruiting Sylvia, we acquire expertise and experience that will, together with our existing team, be the start of a clear investment in the area of public procurement,” says Fredrik Ahlqvist, Managing Partner of the Stockholm Office.
