Lidia Lopez Recognized by The Hispanic National Bar Association

San Francisco Senior Associate Lidia Lopez has been selected to receive The Hispanic National Bar Association's prestigious 2024 “HNBA/VIA Top Lawyers Under 40” Award.

After receiving an impressive number of nominations, the Awards Committee worked hard to identify 25 of the most deserving nominees from across the country. The “Top Lawyers Under 40” Award recognizes accomplished HNBA members who have demonstrated professional excellence, integrity, leadership, commitment to the Hispanic community, and dedication to improving the legal profession. “The HNBA is pleased to recognize the accomplishments of some of our best young Hispanic lawyers, who serve as examples of the talent within our ranks and the promise of our future,” said Daniel Mateo, HNBA National President. “It is important to celebrate our younger lawyers who have both excelled professionally and devoted time to community service. Shining the spotlight on these lawyers not only celebrates them but provides them with even greater visibility and opportunities so that they can open doors for the next generation.”
