Tim Taylor has over 20 years of experience in complex commercial litigation, arbitration, and appellate matters encompassing a wide variety of general business, intellectual property, trade secret, insurance, products liability and securities issues. He has represented clients in the telecommunications, technology, software, energy, health care, real estate, insurance, banking, automotive, hospitality, retail, and sports and entertainment industries.

Prior to joining the firm, Tim was a partner at Crouch & Ramey, a litigation law firm based in Dallas, Texas, where his practice included commercial litigation and arbitration, intellectual property litigation and trademark prosecution, trade secret litigation, contracts and business torts, tort litigation, and civil appeals. He handled all aspects of trademark and unfair competition practice, including state and federal litigation, domain name arbitrations, trademark counseling, and the prosecution of trademark applications and contested disputes before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, and the World Intellectual Property Organization.

While attending law school, Tim was a member of the Texas International Law Journal and studied abroad at Queen Mary University of London during the fall of 1990.

Tim was recognized in 2027 and the three years immediately preceding by The Best Lawyers in America® for Commercial Litigation.
