

Insights: News Releases

Kilpatrick Townsend Expands Complex Commercial Litigation Team in Atlanta with the Addition of Brittany Nash

March 28, 2018

ATLANTA (March 28) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today the addition of Brittany Nash to the firm's Atlanta office. Ms. Nash joins the firm as an associate on the Complex Commercial Litigation Team in the firm's Litigation Department.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Nash was an associate in the litigation section of a law firm based in Atlanta, Georgia where her practice included complex commercial litigation.

Previously, Ms. Nash served as a judicial law clerk for Chief Judge Brian A. Jackson in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana and a judicial law clerk for Magistrate Judge Karen Wells Roby in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana.

Ms. Nash earned her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School. While attending law school, she was on the Michigan Journal of Race and Law and was Chair of the Black Law Students Association. Ms. Nash received a B.A. in History from Spelman College, cum laude. After graduating from college, she served as a Fulbright Grantee in Yilan, Taiwan and taught Pre-Kindergarten as a Teach for America corps member.

For more information about Kilpatrick Townsend, please visit: www.kilpatricktownsend.com.

Follow the firm on Twitter: @KTS_Law.

###