Insights: News

Kilpatrick's Dan Englander Publishes Practical Guidance Practice Note on "International Trademark Filing Systems"

OCTOBER 1, 2025

Atlanta-based partner Dan Englander recently published a Practical Guidance Practice Note on LexisNexis titled "International Trademark Filing Systems."

The Practice Note provides a high-level overview of international trademark filing systems, including the Madrid Protocol, the EU Trademark, filings in Benelux region, filings in Africa via the African Intellectual Property Organization and the African Regional Intellectual Property Organization. Access the article on LexisNexis here.

Dan Englander is a trademark lawyer for international brands. He helps brands choose trademarks and entertainment titles with a practical view of real-world risks, manages large international trademark portfolios, and leads portfolio expansion projects through national applications, priority applications, and Madrid filings. Dan also oversees a large portfolio of contentious trademark matters, including many business-critical, multijurisdictional trademark disputes.

Learn more about Kilpatrick's Trademark, Copyright & Advertising practice.

Related People

Daniel Englander

Atlanta, GA
t 404.815.6042
denglander@ktslaw.com