

Alyssa Huff

Paralegal

4208 Six Forks Road Suite 1400, Raleigh, NC USA 27609
t 919.788.1692

1001 West Fourth Street, Winston-Salem, NC USA 27101
t 336.607.7395
ahuff@ktslaw.com

Services

E-Discovery

Alyssa Huff is an E-Discovery Paralegal with Kilpatrick's LitSmart® E-Discovery Team. She has more than five years of experience successfully managing extensive caseloads from filing to disposition. Alyssa's experience also includes financial crime, arbitration, small claims, and commercial litigation.

Previously, Alyssa worked as a contract paralegal with the firm. Prior to joining the firm, she was a legal assistant with the North Carolina Conference of District Attorneys where Alyssa drafted subpoenas, motions, and writs for attorney approval as well as proofread legal documents prepared by attorneys in financial crime cases.

While attending Appalachian State University, Alyssa served as an intern in the Office of District Attorney Gary Frank, a one-stop election worker for Watauga County Board of Elections, and a Network Services Staff Assistant at a major regional benefits administrator in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Education

Appalachian State University B.A., Political Science Concentration in Pre-Professional Legal Studies,

Minor in Criminal Justice, Dean's List