Greg Cinnamon advises public and private companies as well as private equity-backed companies in connection with their most significant mergers & acquisitions, joint ventures, and divestitures and investments. Greg has more than 25 years of experience as lead counsel on a diverse range of transactions in over 50 countries around the world. His understanding of multiple legal systems, transaction types and structures, and commercial practices, allows him to be a creative problem solver and deal facilitator. Recognized by clients for offering cogent, practical solutions designed to meet business objectives, Greg's industry and sector experience and knowledge, as well as his investment in the client's company and culture, allow him to quickly grasp the business considerations of a transaction and bring it to a successful completion.

Greg is a regular speaker before state, national, and international business and legal audiences on topics affecting and influencing mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures, both domestic and cross border. Before entering law school, he was an internal auditor with RJR/Nabisco (now Reynolds American). In 1991 and 1992, he was on secondment to a leading Tokyo law firm where he had significant responsibility for a number of cross-border investment, finance, and securities transactions. In the first half of 2001, Greg was again seconded to a Top 20 international business law firm headquartered in the UK.

Greg has been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America® since 2009 for Mergers & Acquisitions and Corporate Law. He has also been recommended by Legal 500 US in the area of Mergers & Acquisitions and Buyouts, named as one of Georgia Trend's "Legal Elite" for Business Law, named as a top "Dealmaker" by the Atlanta Business Chronicle, and recognized as a Georgia "Super Lawyer" in the areas of International and Mergers & Acquisitions law by Super Lawyers magazine.

A recipient of the prestigious 2013 Meritorious Service Award presented by the Association for Corporate Growth® (ACG), Greg received this honor for providing distinguished volunteer service and leadership. He is a former board member and President of the Atlanta Chapter of ACG and former board member of ACG Global.
