Matti Scheffer specialises in commercial rental law and real estate law. Matti also has extensive experience in procedural law and regularly represents both Swedish and international property funds and leading real estate companies in disputes in rent tribunals and in general courts as well as in arbitration proceedings. Matti is recommended by the ranking institute The Legal 500 (EMEA 2025).

Matti advises on all matters related to rental law and real estate law, such as negotiations of the terms and conditions of leases and related agreements for both landlords and tenants, termination and renegotiation of leases, property management agreements, rental agency agreements, sale and leaseback, leasehold issues, valuation issues, etc. and disputes concerning such matters.

Matti regularly teaches courses in rental law for several leading course organisers. He also works closely with the Swedish Bar Association to determine new policy and legislation on rental and lease law.
