ADL Honors Debbie Segal with Lifetime Achievement Award

MARCH 14, 2019

On March 12, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) awarded Debbie Segal its Lifetime Achievement Award for her efforts to "secure justice and fair treatment for all" at its 22nd Annual Jurisprudence Luncheon in Atlanta. Debbie — a retired pro bono partner for KT and former executive director of Atlanta Volunteer Lawyers Foundation — joins past recipients Miles Alexander, Elliot Levitas, and Steve Clay as the fourth member of the firm to receive this distinct recognition. Attorney and ADL 2019 Jurisprudence Committee Luncheon co-chair John Lewis, Jr. said, "[Segal's] record of professionalism and commitment to, and support for, the delivery of pro bono civil legal services to the poor and underserved in Georgia are exemplary of the ADL values and mission."
