Pace Cassell focuses her practice on trademark and copyright law.

While attending University of Georgia School of Law, Pace worked with the firm as a summer associate in 2025. She also worked as a law clerk at a long-established, multi-specialty law firm based in Athens, Georgia where she drafted briefs, motions, and other filings for both civil and criminal defendants. Pace served as a legal extern at one of Germany's largest independent, partner-managed consulting firms in Hamburg where she investigated and explained claims, defenses, and procedural nuances with the U.S. legal environment for German clients. She was a member of the Georgia Journal of International and Comparative Law and served as Chair of the Student Bar Association's Service Committee.

Prior to attending law school, Pace worked as a Payroll Expense Lead and then a Payroll Onboarding Supervisor at a major staffing and consulting company in its Atlanta, Georgia headquarters where she managed a team of six onboarding specialists.

Pace has basic knowledge of German.
