

Insights: Publications

Man-Induced Earthquake Research Reverberates in Texas Legislature

Texas Lawyer

May 7, 2015

Written by Barclay R. Nicholson

Legislators appear poised to seek appropriation of $2.5 million for seismic mobile array monitoring equipment after committee members engaged in a technical back-and-forth with experts about the hazards posed by pressure build up, susceptible faults, and human activity.

Related People

Barclay R. Nicholson

t 281.809.4088

bnicholson@ktslaw.com