AUGUST 5, 2013

Employer-Centric HHS Site

Today, HHS announced that it's employer-centric website went live. The website is intended to assist employers and businesses in complying with the Affordable Care Act, and attempts to tailor the site's information based on the business or employer answering questions regarding employee size, location and other relevent factors.