All Quiet in DC this Week

Now that the set of Transformers 3 has moved out of DC, it is fairly quite this week. It appears that everyone is digging out from the avalanche of Affordable Care Act guidance, and waiting for the elections in two weeks. As you are updating your enrollment guides and summary plan descriptions, and drafting plan document amendments, keep in mind that plaintiffs lawyers love obscurity and inconsistency. The best way to draft any plan language is to be clear and consistent among your enrollment guides, summary plan descriptions and plan documents.
