

Insights: Publications

From the Mouth of a Shark: Refugee Resettlement and the Need for Procurement Contracts

Public Contract Law Journal, Vol. 46, No. 1

January 1, 2016

Written by Parker A. Lewton

The Public Contract Law Journal is the quarterly scholarly publication of the ABA Public Contract Law Section, is committed to the publication articles that present analysis and insight into issues affecting the broad scope of public contract law and procurement at the federal, state, and municipal levels. The Journal stands within the legal community as a focal point for the examination of timely legal issues confronting the public contract community.

Related People

Parker A. Lewton

t 404.815.6022

plewton@ktslaw.com