Patent Litigation

Claim Victory

As your patent investments prosper and grow in value, commercial disputes often become inevitable. At Kilpatrick, we protect our client's most important products and brands in patent infringement, enforcement disputes, and mediation or global arbitration. Our 50+ member patent litigation team has handled hundreds of cases, representing clients in federal district courts all over the United States, as well as before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, at the International Trade Commission (ITC), and in post-grant proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB). We leverage our unmatched litigation, technical, and industry experience when anticipating and strategically managing all aspects of a patent litigation case. When a case advances to trial, our nationally recognized litigators zealously advocate for our clients on high-tech, high-stakes matters involving telecommunications, software and internet, consumer products, industrial and manufacturing, banking and financial services, biotechnology, medical diagnostics and devices, and chemical and life sciences.
