

Insights: Publications

NY Vacation Home Ruling Limits Reach of Residency Tax Test

Law360

February 21, 2023

A refusal by New York's highest court to review a decision that an out-of-state commuter's little-used vacation home didn't subject him to New York income tax clarified some elements of the state's statutory residency test but left unanswered questions about its scope.

To read more, please click "View Full Article."

Related People

Jeffrey S. Reed

t 212.775.8792

jsreed@ktslaw.com