Insights: Publications

Fair Workweek Laws: Coming Soon to a Neighborhood Near You

New York Law Journal

NOVEMBER 19, 2019

Fair workweek laws generally require large food and retail establishments to provide predictable work schedules and additional compensation for certain types of schedule changes and shifts. Due to the significant number of franchise businesses in the industries covered by these laws, understanding and complying with them is important for franchisors and franchisees alike.