

Briana W. Bell-Willis

Associate

1100 Peachtree Street NE
Suite 2800, Atlanta, GA USA 30309
t 404.815.6124 | f 404.393.8052
bbell@ktslaw.com

Services

Intellectual Property

Trademark, Copyright & Advertising

Briana Bell-Willis focuses her practice on trademark and copyright law.

While attending Emory University School of Law, Briana worked with the firm as a summer associate in 2021. She served as Articles Editor of the Emory Law Journal, Vice President of the Black Law Students Association, and research assistant to Professor Dorothy Brown, known for her work on Critical Race Theories.

Prior to attending law school, Briana served as an intern for Representative Mike Thompson in the U.S. House of Representatives in Washington, D.C. She served as an Emerging Leader intern at the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation, an educational foundation that conducts research on issues affecting African Americans, in Washington, D.C. Briana was also a policy and research intern for the Council of State Governments, a nonpartisan, non-profit organization in the United States that serves all three branches of state government, in Washington, D.C.

Prior to beginning her legal career, Briana was a collegiate basketball player.

Education

Emory University School of Law J.D. (2022) GABWA Foundation Scholar, PracticePro IL Diversity Scholar, DAPP Scholar, Black Law Students Association Scholarship Recipient

Young Harris College B.S., Business and Public Policy, Minor in Spanish (2018) summa cum laude, with honors

Admissions

Georgia (2022)

Insights

News Releases

As We Enter 2023, We Look Back at the Outstanding Associates Who Joined Kilpatrick Townsend in 2022
January 17, 2023