Insights: News Releases

Kilpatrick Townsend's Marc Lieberstein Named to Two Distinguished Boards

FEBRUARY 6, 2018

NEW YORK (February 5) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today that partner Marc Lieberstein was recently appointed to two prestigious boards. Mr. Lieberstein was named to the Board of Directors of Unchained at Last and to the Board of Directors of the Foundation for Art & Healing.

Unchained at Last is the only nonprofit in the United States dedicated to helping women and girls leave or avoid arranged/forced marriages and rebuild their lives. Unchained is also the only nonprofit in the U.S. dedicated to creating social, policy, and legal change to end forced and child marriage in America.

For more information on Unchained at Last, please click here.

The Foundation for Art & Healing helps bridge the gap between the medical world, artists, and the local community to synthesize the medical and humanistic perspective of the healing process and transport it into community settings. Its mission is to expand awareness of the important relationship between creative arts expression and health, to bring forward through research and related explorations critical knowledge about these vital and enduring humanistic concerns, and to make effective arts-based health enhancing opportunities increasingly available and accessible at the individual and community level. In response to the growing public health concern of social isolation and loneliness, the Foundation for Art and Healing launched the UnLonely Project. The goal of this signature initiative is to broaden public awareness of the negative physical and mental health consequences of loneliness associated with a wide range of living conditions and circumstances while also exploring and promoting creative arts-based approaches to reduce the burden.

For more information on the Foundation for Art & Healing, please click here.

Mr. Lieberstein is the co-chair of the Retail & Consumer Goods industry team. His practice focuses on intellectual property licensing and franchising in the retail/consumer goods and services areas, fashion/apparel and accessories, food and beverage, and commercial/industrial design, including the drafting, negotiation and enforcement of license and franchise documents and agreements, as well as implementation of branding and commercialization objectives for clients via licensing and franchising. In conjunction with the services above, Mr. Lieberstein counsels clients on creating effective strategies for procuring, protecting and enforcing their global intellectual property assets. He has also participated in and used alternative dispute resolution forums such as arbitration and mediation to enforce intellectual property rights.

For more information about Kilpatrick Townsend, please visit: www.kilpatricktownsend.com.

Follow the firm on Twitter: @KTS_Law.

###