Insights: Publications

SCOTUS and Native Student College Admissions

AUGUST 9, 2024 Written by Alexander M. Mallory

In Alexander Mallory's article for Arizona Attorney Magazine, he provides institutions of higher education with information about the SFFA Decision's impact on principles of federal Indian law and concludes that those institutions are not precluded from considering an applicant's status as Indian because such a classification is political and not an impermissible racial classification.

Read the full article here.

Related People

Alexander M. Mallory
t 602.726.7312
amallory@ktslaw.com